John Bull's Other Island takes up the issues of land ownership and land use. The name of the play itself highlights the reality that ownership of the entire island of Ireland rested in England, and not in Ireland itself. The play was written and first performed in 1904, the same year that the Abbey Theatre was established.

Despite having been written at the request of W.B. Yeats, 'John Bull's Other Island' was rejected by the Abbey due to lack of resources. The Royal Court production listed here toured Ireland in 1907, with the first Irish performance of the play taking place in the Theatre Royal, Dublin. The Abbey eventually staged their own performance in 1916.
