The Rivals (1775), is a Georgian comedy of manners which hired out books and charged whacking late-fees, a major source of income. Lydia is clearly an excellent subscriber. The Edwardian critic George H. Nettleton made extensive study of the twenty books listed in Act One Scene Two, concluding that, though some of them are obscure, none has actually been made up by Sheridan. Novels were at this time often written by women, and consumed.
